WINTER

Issue #6

Wishing you a very
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

From My Heart

Don't Miss Christmas!

In The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion The Witch and The Wardrobe a young girl named Lucy steps through the back of an antique wardrobe and arrives in cold, snowy Narnia. She immediately meets Mr. Tumnuse who tells her "It is always winter here and never Christmas." That's like going to bed on Christmas eve and waking up on December 26, 2019. The original Christmas story introduces us to four people or groups that missed the first Christmas.

The Innkeeper (Luke 2:7). He's a bad guy in the Christmas story. The inn was crowded with other guests that got there ahead of Mary and Joseph. My hunch is, in retrospect, he wished he had given up his bed for Mary. Don't let an overcrowded life squeeze out room for Jesus. He wants to be the center, not the circumference of your life.

Fellow Travelers and Bethlehemites (Luke 2:1-3). The census made Bethlehem a busy place. Lots of money was being made on the out-of-town guests. Working people were too busy cashing in to pay attention to a baby born to a peasant couple.

Christmas should remind us there are things more important than money.

Herod (Matthew 2:1-3, 16). King Herod missed Christmas because he was afraid of the competition of another King. He had an inflated idea of his own importance, to the point, that he was willing to murder a bunch of boys two years old and younger. Christmas is not a time to be self-absorbed. It is time to turn our hearts toward others.

Religious Leaders (Matthew 2:4-6) The chief priests and scribes knew the Scriptures (Micah 5:2), yet they refused to recognize the reality of the Messiah's birth. Ironically, their failure to acknowledge Him years later would lead to His death that brought atonement for our sins. Christmas is a time to not only read the Christmas story, but to put it into practice.

It's winter in Kentucky. But we know the whole story now. We are determined to never miss Christmas. Have a merry and bright time with your church and family!

Bluegrass Happenings!

Louisville, Valley Station

We have made Blessing Quilts for each child at the Home For Children in TN. All of our materials have been donated but we had to pay 60.00 per quilt to have them quilted... People gave over $4,000.00 from all over to help us. This has been truly awesome. We met every Thursday morning, some cutting the material, some sewing on their sewing machines, some ironing... and so on. This was a BIG UNDERTAKING! We prayed over all the quilts during Sunday morning worship.

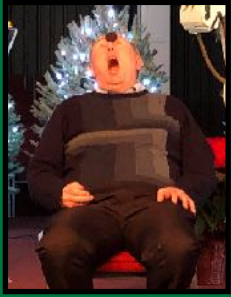

Corbin, Parkway

50 ladies joined together at the Corbin, Parkway church for a Christmas dinner and celebration. Kim Arnold was the guest speaker and she shared about "Christmas Praise."

State Office Note Burning

The mortgage for the Kentucky Church of God State Office building was paid off earlier this year and we celebrated by burning a copy of the note at our Christmas Banquet on December 7, 2019. Praise The Lord!

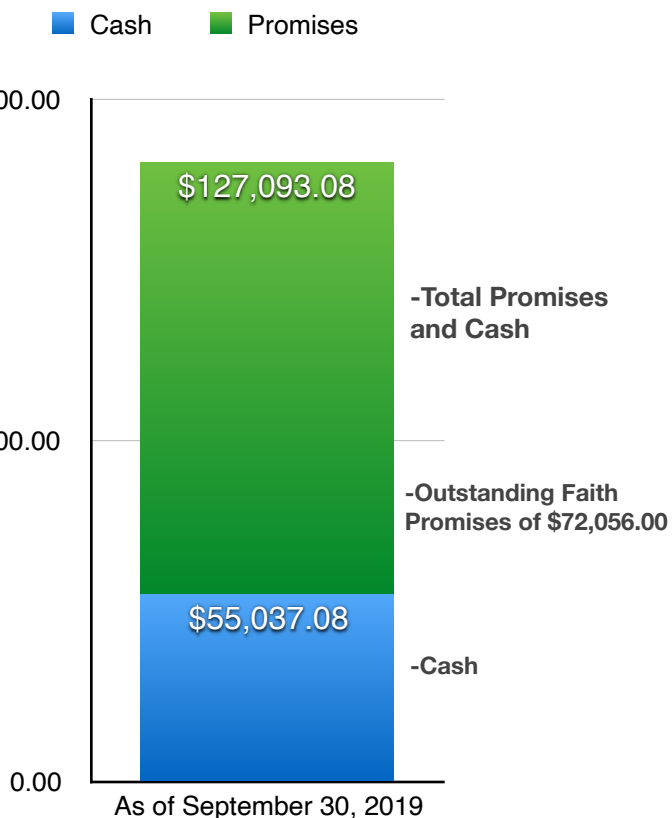

Edinburgh, Scotland - Reclaiming the Cornerstone

5 EASY WAYS FOR CHURCHES & INDIVIDUALS TO WITNESS:

A DESPERATELY NEEDED CHALLENGE

SHARE YOUR TESTIMONY ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Post a short personal testimony in written or video format. End your post with an invitation to pray for them, or meet for coffee if they would like to learn more.

SHARE A WITNESSING TRACT WITH SOMEONE

Witnessing tracts are available on our website. Share one with a co-worker, or your waitress at a restaurant. Go the extra step and explain the meaning behind the tract.

VISIT WWW.SPREADTRUTH.COM

Download the app that allows you to share Jesus from your phone in multiple languages, or share the 6 minute video entitled "The Story" on your social media platform.

INVITE A LOST FRIEND TO SHARE A MEAL

Sharing your faith with a close friend or family member can feel intimidating. Break down the walls by inviting them to share a meal. Simply share your heart and let God move!

PLAN A CHURCH OUTREACH PARTY

Promote a free event at a park or another location outside of your church campus. Provide free food and family friendly activities. Encourage members of your congregation to build relationships and show love to those who attend.

Special thanks to Paula Hill and the Women's Ministries Advisory Council for bringing Faith, Fire and Freedom to Lexington Kentucky!
