From My Heart

Stepping Through Hope's Door

In the middle of the eighth century B.C., the Northern Kingdom of Israel was in its final days. Plagued by over 200 years of wicked, idolatrous leadership; they now faced the advancing armies of Assyria. In the midst of their crisis, the prophet Hosea delivers a word from the Lord declaring that he “will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope” (Hosea 2:15).

The Valley of Achor (Hebrew means “trouble”) was southwest of Jericho. It was the first place Israel experienced judgement in the Promised Land because of Achan’s sin (see Joshua 7). Yet, this same valley was the passage from the Jordan Valley to the interior highlands of Canaan. They had to travel through trouble to reach everything God had promised them. As I reflect on the last seven months, I can see how God is opening a door of hope for us, as we are passing through the COVID 19 valley of trouble. Four things stand out to me.

Routines and traditions have been disrupted, but God has used this to challenge us to innovate and improve. We don’t tend to change unless we’re forced too. We get comfortable with how we do things, which can lead to complacency. Thank God He is stretching us.

Denial and rationalization is only cured by honesty, even if it hurts. Walking through the current crisis has forced us to look long and hard at our ministry habits and delivery systems. The coronavirus has been used by God like a mirror. Mirrors don’t lie. They give us the opportunity to see things that need to be corrected or that can be done better.

Seeing people saved is to be celebrated. But it must be the doorway to discipleship. The Great Commission calls us not to just “get people saved,” but to “make disciples.” The last seven months has revealed the shallowness of some folks spirituality. Attention must be given to developing healthy spiritual disciplines and “equipping the saints to do the work of ministry.”

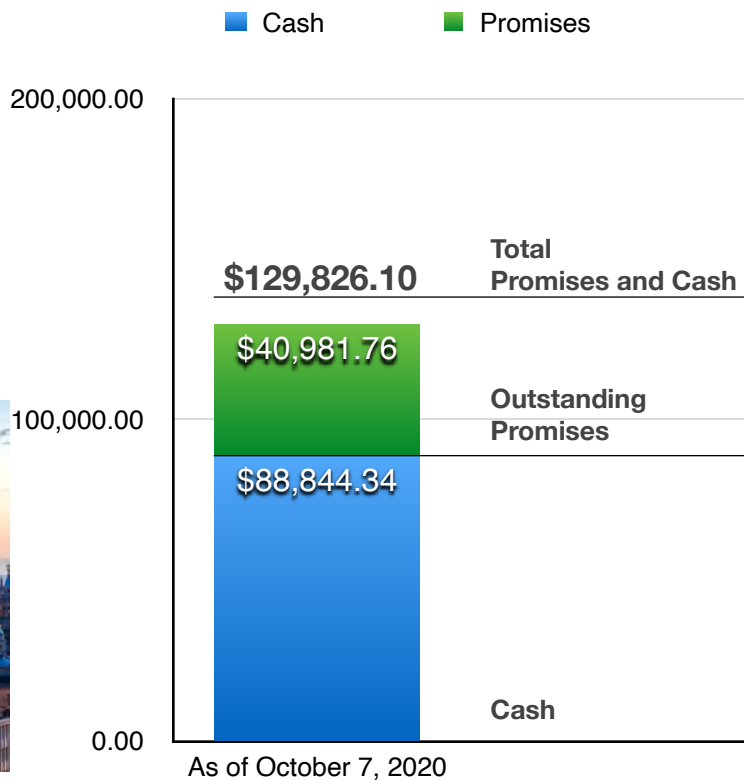

The value of genuine fellowship that unites us, is to be valued more than ever. Shallow, surface dominated relationships cause us to scatter when times get tough. But real love for each other helps us get through the toughest times together. As your State Overseer, I want to thank you for deepening your love for each other and for loving me and Alice.

Connect 4 DID YOU KNOW?

- ◆ At least eight first time Kentucky pastors were chosen be part of a Pentecostal Theological Seminary THRIVE cohort. This is a coaching initiative for rookie pastors.
- ◆ Go to wepraycog.com for prayer ministry resources and to network with other intercessors.

- ◆ The Harrodsburg church has developed a relationship with the local Campbellsville University campus. They are hosting a special Sunday night service with about 50 students attending,
- ◆ The first three Refreshing on the Road services had a combined attendance of 360.

- ◆ Oak Grove and Russell Springs, Bethesda Community, have recently celebrated note burning services after paying off their property debt.
- ◆ London, Life House has moved into a beautiful new facility on 10+ acres.
- ◆ We currently have 12 people enrolled in MIP and 14 in CAMS.
- ◆ The August 6-8 Campground workdays helped us complete all of the fence painting, repairs to a bath house, etc.

- ◆ The Well Church plant, under the leadership of Pastor Paul Woosley, had to delay their opening until October 4, 2020. There were 42 people in their first service.

Bluegrass Happenings

Our first Virtual Empowered Women's Conference was a huge success! There were over 1500 views and churches all over Kentucky hosted watch parties so our women could worship together. Thank you women of Kentucky for turning up and tuning in!

The videos will be posted each week on our Facebook page, KY Church of God Women's Ministries and on our website, kycog.net.

Empowered
Women's Conference

March 2020

We are going virtual again with our Empowered Women's Conference!

Nothing can take the place of joining together to worship, so until we can come together as one large body, we are asking individual churches to come together and join with us in March to experience the worship, music, workshops and ministry through the Word of Empowered by Truth 2021. We will be utilizing our website and social media to share not just our worship service, but 3 powerful workshops as well! Details will be posted on the KY Church of God Women's Ministries Facebook page as well as emailed to each pastor and pastor's wife.
