Issue #11

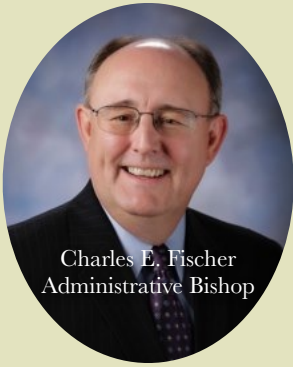

The rains came down and the floods rose up

Kentucky Flood Relief Update

As of April 14, 2021, $36,080.57 in flood relief offerings have been received in the State Office from 55 local churches and individuals. To date there has been $33,800.00 disbursed to the nine churches affected by the devastating floods in late February and early March.

Special thanks to our pastors and local churches for their generous response!

From My Heart

Birthrights and Blessings

The book of Genesis is filled with sibling rivalries. Cain and Abel. Isaac and Ishmael. Joseph and his brothers. Then there is Jacob and Esau. At the peak of their contentions, Esau says to his father Jacob “He took my birthright, and now he’s taken my blessing (Gen, 26:36)!”

Birthright speaks to the inheritance of land, buildings and monetary assets. Blessing speaks more to the intangibles of approval and unconditional love. All the stuff you accumulate in the former is empty and meaningless, without the priceless gift found only in the latter.

All too often broken people are missing genuine blessings because they are busy chasing birthrights. Many pastors and ministers lead frustrating lives because they think success in ministry is merely about increasing attendance and finances or building new buildings. They think this makes them look good to their peers and those over them in the Lord, yet in the end, their sense of entitlement leaves them void of the blessing of unconditional love. I think Esau would tell us that the blessing is to be cherished above the birthright. In 49 years of ministry, I’ve learned three important lessons about birthrights and blessings.

Success that is seen on the outside, must flow from an enduring sense of inner wholeness in the soul. If a minister isn’t healthy in the secret places of his heart, the weight of ministry responsibilities will cause his/her life to implode. Gifts and talents must rest on the foundation of inner health in your soul.

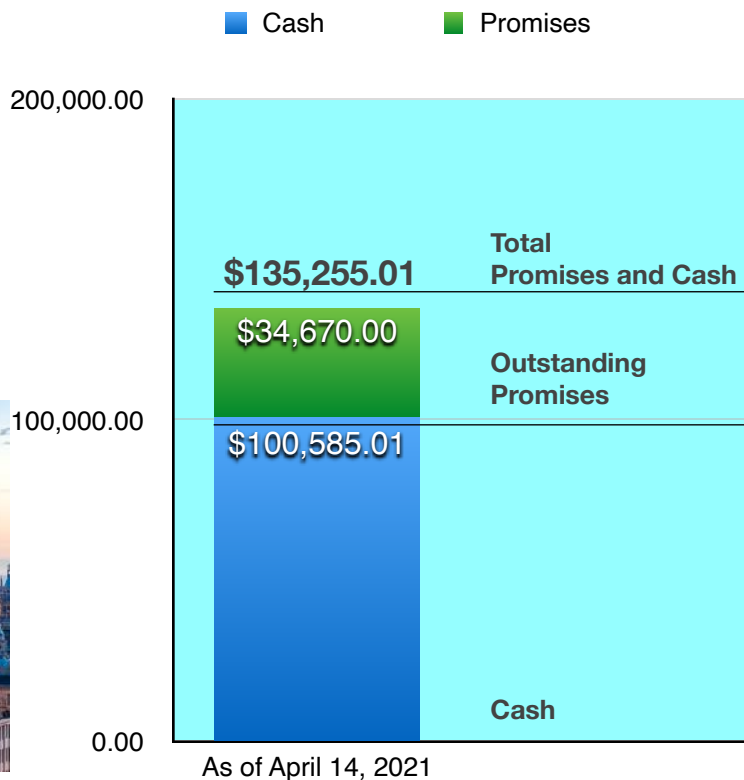

Ministry that only tickles ears and stirs emotions falls short of the blessing of lasting transformation. Too much fast food and not enough healthy meals leads to a sick body. The same principle applies to a person’s soul and spirit. Christians need a healthy diet of the whole Word of God, instruction in the spiritual intimacy of personal prayer and worship, and the application of both in their everyday lives.

Only blessed people can bless others. It is simple. You can’t pass on to others what you have not experienced. The beauty of the gospel is that Jesus came to heal and redeem us from the inside out. You may not have received it from your family of origin, but your heavenly Father offers it to you through the unconditional love of Jesus for you. As you let him sow the blessing of His love in you, that love will flow out of you to enrich all of those to which you minister.

Help Wanted!

State Campground Projects

Any days between now and Refreshing Campmeeting, we could use some help getting our buildings and grounds ready. Please contact Steve Jordan @ 859-533-7300 to let him know if you, or folks from your church can help.

Room is available to stay on the grounds and lunch will be provided. Flower beds need to be planted and mulched as well as limb and tree clean up. Inside there is a need for cleaning and set-up for the Refreshing services.

May 13-15, 2021 has been designated as Campground Work Days, however any help between now and camp meeting will be much appreciated!

Cave City MWOA Project

Our local church at Cave City is in desperate need of significant repairs. Our Men and Women of Action Team will be working there April 27-May1, 2021. We could especially use two electricians, two skilled carpenters and an experienced siding person. General laborers are also needed. Please contact KYMWOA Coordinator, Bill Harrison @ 859-248-5529.

Women's Ministries Update

Women's Ministries Awards

Thank you so much for supporting Women With A Mission, Covenant Sisters and The Home for Children with your generous gifts and offerings! You truly have generous hearts and are such a blessing to these worthy ministries! In the past we have given a plaque to each church who raised the most money for each of these ministries. To better honor our churches for their giving and to recognize the pastor's wives at these churches, we have made some changes to our awards. First of all, we have dedicated a wall in the foyer of the tabernacle to Kentucky Women's Ministries and have mounted 3 perpetual plaques that will honor the winners and runners-up in each category for these ministries. Secondly, each church winner and runner-up will receive a beautiful certificate commemorating their receipt of this award. Finally, the pastor's wife from each of these churches will receive a monetary gift to thank her for her leadership in giving to these worthy ministries.

Only monies received in the State Office by May 19, 2021 will count toward this year's awards.

Refreshing 2021 Women's Service

Friday, June 11, 2021 at 10:30 AM will be our Women's Ministries Service during our Refreshing 2021 Campmeeting. We will be honoring the award winners from 2020 and 2021 at the beginning of the service. This year I have invited Deena Querry, Co-Lead Pastor at the Living Waters Church of God in Fountain Valley, CA, to be our speaker. Deena will be sharing her testimony of God's grace and healing after being diagnosed with a brain tumor.

Reporting

As we are beginning a new reporting year for Women's Ministries, I wanted to encourage all of our churches to make a fresh effort to send in your Women's Ministries Quarterly Reports. This past year has been rough on all our churches. Our meetings and services have undergone major changes. Now that we are headed closer to normal, it's time to renew our efforts for Women's Ministries in our local churches.

Empowered Women's Conference 2022

Mark your calendars for March 25-26, 2022!! Empowered by Grace is the theme for next year's conference and it will be held here at our Kentucky Church of God Campground and Conference Center. We have lined up special guests and activities and plan to make this a huge celebration of God's grace in our lives and of the women of Kentucky coming together again! You won't want to miss this, so start planning now!

Thank you for all you do for Women's Ministries in your local church and for your support for Women's Ministries in Kentucky. God is doing some great things in us and through us! I look forward to what God has in store for the future!

-Alice Fischer

HOUSE OF CHERITH

Reclaim. Renew. Rekindle.

Story of Hope

Below is a letter written by a survivor to House of Cherith.

“My life before House of Cherith was dark and hopeless. I had got to a point where I literally could not see a future. I had completely given up on myself mentally, physically, and spiritually. I was completely broken. I had lost my faith and hope. I battled with an addiction to meth for eight years where during that time I lost everything that was important to me and worth living for. I was a mom with two beautiful daughters, I was a nurse with the best bedside manner and I had a family that was proud of me. Then one by one and little by little I lost all of that to where eventually I became homeless and somehow ended up being prostituted out to at multiple locations. I would meet someone thinking I was going to do legal work. I ended up getting prostituted out for drugs, alcohol and money that they kept so I would try somewhere else and it would happen again. Eventually, after being homeless for some time, it was cold outside and I broke into a building. I got arrested for burglary. I told my lawyer about being prostituted and the judge ordered me to complete the terms of Out of Darkness. Out of Darkness chose House a Cherith for me. House of Cherith has changed many things for me. The biggest change is that it has given me back my faith and hope to where I can actually see a future. I have grown spiritually from the way the program is set up. We are allowed and blessed with space, food, clothes, and the time to heal. And the time that is given to us we are staying focused on God which is our foundation and around that is classes where we can learn, process and are given versatile tools to enable us to heal from our trauma. I have also learned how to simply socialize again through team building.”
