From My Heart

Reflections on my Ministry Journey

This Spring, I am celebrating 50 years since I received my call to ministry. It happened in a Sunday night service at the Parkway Church of God in Dallas, TX. As a 14-year-old boy, I knelt at the front pew and prayed through most of the service. At the end of the service, I asked Pastor O.C. Gilbert if I could say something. I told my home church family that God had called me to preach.

The journey from that night until now has been filled with twist and turns, joys and sorrows and successes and failures. God has been faithful to me all along the journey. I have learned so much along the way that there's no way to communicate it all in this small space. Here's seven quick, simple things I've learned that have sustained me.

Anchor Points are a Necessity - Along my ministry journey, there have been plenty of times of doubt and discouragement. The temptation to run away and quit was real. But in those moments, God reminded me of what He did in my heart in that Sunday night service in 1972. That memory is an anchor point that I can tug on in difficult times to steady my heart.

Friends are Priceless - There are a number of ministry couples that Alice and I have been friends with for several decades. We can laugh together, cry together, vacation together and be vulnerable together. Money can't buy this treasured blessing.

Never Stop Learning - I disciplined myself to get a B.A. in Christian Ministries, a Master of Divinity in Parish Ministries and I'm currently working toward a D. Min. degree. I'm a voracious reader. I'm always reading two books at a time. One that is ministry related and one that is historical or biographical in nature. The day you stop learning is the day you start dying.

Stretching is Painful, but Productive - The older I get, the more aches and pains I feel. But I force myself to walk and exercise to stay healthy and hopefully prolong my life. What works physically, is also good for us mentally and emotionally.

Relationships are Bridges - You earn the right to speak into and influence other people by building bridges, not barriers, to their lives. These bridges can help us obtain resources and get opportunities to minister to people that would otherwise never happen.

Failure Doesn't Have to be Fatal - There are plenty of things I've done that didn't work out so well. You have to be mature enough to acknowledge it, learn from it and move on.

Family Life is a Guarded Treasure - 46 years ago I met Alice. A year later, we were married. We raised a daughter and son. We're now blessed with a wonderful son-in-law, daughter-in-law and three grandchildren. Family is our first ministry responsibility. If that's not protected, your ministry will be vulnerable. Cherish your spouse and children above everyone else.

Connect 4 DID YOU KNOW?

- ◆ Many of our local churches began this year with a 21-day prayer and fasting emphasis.
- ◆ Please consider joining in on our weekly prayer call on Thursdays from 6:30-7:30 PM. Dial (727) 731-1501 to connect with other intercessors.

- ◆ Great crowds showed up for Prayer Conference and the Empowered Women's Conference. There is nothing like being together in person.
- ◆ If your district has not started a Pastor's and Spouses Covenant Group, consider developing one, in cooperation with your District Overseer.

- ◆ Our 17 MIP students will be traveling to Cleveland, TN for the Commissioning service in late May. After the service, we will feed them, then take them on a five to six hour tour of Church of God historical sites.
- ◆ The Pentecostal Theological Seminary offers great training for ministers. If you don't have a B.A., check out their Certificate Program. They also offer numerous Masters and Doctoral degrees. Go to ptseminary.edu for more information.

- ◆ Please pray for and celebrate Jeff and Laura Finley and their Elevate Church Plant in SE Louisville.
- ◆ In February, there were 11,395 converted, 698 restored, 166 baptized in the Holy Spirit, 439 baptized in water and 352 new members added through the ministries of our local churches and ministers.

Tornado Relief Update

“It was amazing how people worked hand in hand and side by side, and the donations that flooded the area for the tornado victims, was such a blessing. God’s people are amazing, and the love of God was shown to our area in abundance!”

-Marlene Farmer, Dawson Springs

As of April 12, 2022, donations of $258,729.40 from 121 individuals, churches and state offices have come into and been distributed by the Kentucky Church God State Office. We are extremely thankful for this generous response from our brothers and sisters in the Lord from across the United States.

You will be hearing more about the tornado relief effort at Refreshing this summer, but we wanted to share a brief update with you now.

Central City, Pastor Brian Davis

Central City Church of God gave out food to 120 families, distributed 220 pairs of new shoes in partnership with Samaritan’s feet, furnished Bremen Elementary 430 pairs of new shoes, distributed diapers and baby products to over 200 families, provided motel rooms to displaced survivors. Pastor Brian Davis provided Chaplain and Pastoral services to those affected as well as joining with other churches in the county to minister to those affected by the tornado. The church opened their fellowship hall for work crews to stay in.

Dawson Springs, Pastor Raymond Farmer

Dawson Springs put one family that lost their home up in a hotel and helped with the purchase of a camper and the supplies that they would need to live until they could rebuild. They provided funds for a college student to help replace her car and laptop. Pastor Farmer has been involved in repair work and building new homes in the Dawson Springs and Princeton areas. They have provided supplies to many people that have been displaced. The Dawson Springs congregation has helped with clean up, salvaging belongings, and cooking and serving meals. They have also helped taxi people from the Amish community who wanted to join in the relief effort.

Bowling Green, Pastor Stephen Oliver

The Bowling Green church was able to help 10 families and provide them with supplies. They helped a Spanish church with donations and supplies as well as providing supplies for 2 nursing homes. They also housed Men and Women of Action in their fellowship hall while they worked on the Spanish church.

Mayfield, Pastor Robert Davis

Mayfield Church of God opened their doors to serve their community two days after the devastating tornado hit their city. With the help of Operation Compassion, Men and Women of Action, God's Pit Crew and over 200 volunteers from 13 states, 3,000 hot meals were served, 80 tons of products and supplies were distributed, 5,000 families were helped, 400 children received toys at Christmas and generators were installed and given out to families as needed.

Madisonville, Covenant Community Church, Pastor Michael Knight

With over 300 volunteers, Covenant Community jumped on board to help with relief efforts. They served as a command center, funneling donations to points of distribution that they set up in the four most affected areas. They immediately began collecting and distributing goods. They cleared out their warehouse over 13 times with over 35 semi trucks bringing in items. They distributed over $25,000 in gift cards. Covenant Community hosted over 200 volunteers, distributed over $400,000 in restoration checks and approximately $200,000 in building supplies, furniture and other necessities. They also collected and distributed over 25,000 Christmas presents!

“God has called each and every one of us to be the hands and feet of Christ, and on December 11th, you could see Christ everywhere you went.” -Cindy Wicks, Madisonville

Women's Ministries Update

Refreshing 2022 Empowered Women's Service

Friday, June 24, 10:30 AM

This year we are thrilled to have one of our own, Sister Betty Shaver as our guest speaker. Sister Shaver is an experienced pastor and minister and I can't wait to hear what God has laid on her heart to share with us!

Women's Ministries Awards

Our giving awards for The Smoky Mountain Children's Home, Women With A Mission (House of Cherith) and Covenant Sisters will be presented during our Refreshing Women's Service. All funds must be in the State Office by May 31 to count towards these awards. The winning and runner-up churches will receive a certificate and be listed on the appropriate perpetual plaque in the tabernacle foyer. The winning and runner-up pastor's wives will receive a monetary gift.

Empowered by Grace Videos

We are in the process of editing the two services from our Empowered by Grace Women's Conference. These videos will be posted on our YouTube channel and will be available free of charge to any one who attended our conference or any church who had women attend. Those churches who were unable to attend will be able to access the videos for a nominal charge. More information will be available at a later date.

GA22 Women's Service

For those of you attending the General Assembly, you won't want to miss our Women's Service, Wednesday, July 27. Our speaker is Amanda Crabb and Jonathan Sawyer will be leading in music and worship.

YOUTH & DISCIPLESHIP

The stage for a Comeback is set. All we need is you and your students to make KYC a tide-turning experience for our youth!

Kentucky Youth Camp is taking over the state campgrounds this July for the first time since 2019, and we earnestly need your help. Whether you can send kids, volunteer or donate, everyone in the Kentucky Church of God can help make a difference!

It starts Saturday, May 7 with a Run4Hope at the Campgrounds at 9 a.m. All funds raised will serve two purposes: a portion will go to orphanages around the world. A second portion will be invested in our campgrounds as we prepare for KYC. We need to raise $20,000 to repair the boys' bath house, swimming pool and zip line. You can give at kycog.net, clicking on the giving button and then selecting the Youth Fund.

The campground isn't all that's making a comeback: we need you and your kids to come back to KYC as well! We are accepting worker applications and camper apps online at kycog.net – we need every hand on deck, and want to reach every student we can. Whether you have 30 kids in youth group or two, every soul matters and every kid counts!

Maria and I are so excited working with our KYC team to make preparations for our first camp in Kentucky. We covet your prayers as we cry out to God to pour out of His Spirit on our sons and our daughters July 4-8 (high school), July 11-15 (middle school) and July 18-22 (elementary).
